

eco-situational awareness

Precision Guidance

The latest Honeywell Flight Management System software offers Required Navigation Performance (RNP) capabilities, providing precision guidance for approaches and departures at terrain-challenged or congested airports. With required authorization, Honeywell-equipped aircraft will be flying more direct routes and reducing fuel consumption. For operators, the bottom line is safety and better fuel efficiency. And the high ground in environmental responsibility. Engage Safety

Honeywell